Attendance requirements

Attendance is very important as almost everything learned is hands on and participatory. A student may miss up to 32 days, as long as 12 hours prior notice is given before each day missed. If 32-56 hours are missed, the student must make-up in one of three ways: 1-completing homework assigned by the appropriate teacher. 2-private tutoring with the teacher. Or 3-self study and demonstration massage on a teacher, at the teacher's tutoring rate. If more than 56 hours are missed, a meeting will be held between director and student to evaluate the student's continued interest and to decide if withdrawal is necessary. If more than 56 hours are missed without asking for a Leave of Absence or in some way meeting and discussing with the administration, the student will be withdrawn.
